

... AND THE BAND PLAYED ON ... Last Sunday was warm but not too warm and proved to be an ideal day for the outdoor band concert staged on the grounds of the Carpenter street school at Mokena. It was relaxing to sit and just listen instead of jumping up and down to keep the TV picture in focus. The concert was given by a band made up by pupils from the Frankfort and Mokena public schools and was conducted Sunday by Perry Friedman, director of both bands. The band had given a concert the previous week at Frankfort. The Band Mothers added to the uniform fund with their sale of popcorn, et cetera, and luckily the program ended before the rain came. (Marvin Smith photo)

Crash Fatal to 14-Year-Old Boy

Funeral services were held this morning for Erbin LeFevre, Jr., 14 year old crash victim.

The boy was fatally injured Sunday when he lost control of the car he was driving and the vehicle ran into a ditch, struck a tree and overturned. The lad was pronounced dead on arrival at Oak Forest hospital.

The LeFevre boy resided with his parents at 156th and 112th court, Orland township. Sunday morning he started for a service station at the junction of 112th court and 159th to get some gasoline for a power mower.

According to state police report, the boy's uncle, Herbert Bell, permitted him to take his car for the errand. The youth was alone in the vehicle and after reaching the highway he apparently decided to take a little ride. The accident occurred on 159th street near U. S. 45.

Erbin was born at Chicago Nov. 20, 1943 and was an only child. He was graduated from St. Michael's parochial school and was a freshman at Carl Sandburg high school last year. He would have entered school as a sophomore in September. His mother, Roberta, withstood the shock of Erbin's death when first informed of it but Sunday evening she collapsed and an inhalator squad was called to revive her. A coroner's jury was sworn in and a coroner's inquest begun at the Schmaedeke funeral home at Orland Park. After necessary preliminaries the inquest was adjourned to Sept. 9, at which time it is to be held in the village hall.

The funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Michael's church with the Rev. Frank Coyle officiating.

125 Attend

Coopers Flock to Family Reunion

The Cooper annual family reunion was held last Sunday at the Lester Sayers farm home on 159th street in Orland Park with 125 relatives present. Doris Cooper was the official greeter.

The Rev. Robert Plastow, Pastor of the Orland Park Methodist church, gave the invocation preceding the basket lunch. Adele Cooper of Orland Park was chairman of the program and business meeting.

The opening number was the singing of "God Bless America" which was lead by Clarence Beagley of Ontario, Calif. Wilbert Cooper of Indiana aptly called "The Hoosier Philosopher", gave a humorous talk. Recitations and musical selections were given by Audrey and Diane Hoss-bach, and Priscilla and Dale Cooper. Amy Cooper of Indiana, historian, reported on all family changes.

Small tokens were presented to members with unusual facts. William Russell Cooper, Indiana, the youngest member present; most recently married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cooper, Indiana; the oldest member, William Cooper, 91, of Indiana, who is the only direct and surviving member of Thomas and Elenor Cooper; the longest married couple, Frank and Agnes Sayers, Orland Park, married 53 years; Thomas and Laura Cooper, Orland Park, having the largest family present, and Clarence and Mabel Beagley, having come the farthest distance. The program was closed with the group singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Lois Hossbach, Lilas Show, Jeanette Knieriem, Violet and Sally Cooper and Alice Gintner were in charge of games, with prizes for all ages.

The photo gallery, which was created by members bringing old and new family pictures, was arranged by Mabel Stellwagon of Mokena and Jessie Creer of Orland Park.

Officers elected for 1959 are Howard and Ersel Creer, chairmen, assisted by Clarence and Mona Creer; Alma Rauch, secretary and Charles Cooper, treasurer, all of Orland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sayers extended an invitation to have the reunion again at their home next year, which was

Few Dogs In Orland, License Receipts Show

Village records at Orland Park show that dogs are in short supply as far as that municipality is concerned.

There are many residents who will take exception to such a statement, contending there is little difference in count between the dog population of Orland Park and the pickle output controlled by

Mr. Heinz.

Trustee Joseph Lebens, chairman of the village committee on licenses, is not prepared to agree there are that many dogs in Orland Park but he does say that the figure on the sale of dog licenses would qualify for top prizes in any contest involving understatements.

The figures given Mr. Lebens show only 89 dogs in the village. There are times, Mr. Lebens said, to judge from complaints received there are at least that many dogs in any one block.

Lebens figures there must be at least 500 dogs in the village but when it comes to buying a license for them the

Will County 4-H Fair Opens Today At Peotone

The combined 4-H Agricultural fair and Home Economic show opens today at the Will County Fair Grounds at Peotone. It ends tomorrow.

Four hundred and one agricultural 4-H members are exhibiting their projects at this time and more than 300 girls will show their entries.

In the agricultural division there will be 76 beef cattle, 83 dairy exhibits, 60 swine and 68 garden. There also will be displays of home ground improvement, poultry, rabbits and sheep.

The beef and swine exhibits will be tomorrow, with all the other exhibits today. Any projects not exhibited at Peotone will be displayed at the crop show in Manhattan on Nov. 3.

In the Home Economic show foods and room improvement projects will be exhibited today. Over 1,600 food projects will be exhibited. Exhibits will range from peanut butter cookies, snickerdoodles, foundation cakes, banana bread, loaves of bread and pies to frozen vegetables and fruits, canned fruits and vegetables, complete menus and outdoor meal exhibits.

There will be 177 room improvement projects on display, room plans, flower arrangements, pictures and table covers will be displayed.

Handicraft exhibits will be displayed by 106 4-Hers and 77 4-Hers will exhibit party plans.

All exhibits will receive ABC rating. Home Advisers from surrounding counties will judge the exhibits.

Something new has been added to the show. There will be a food sale at the end of the first day of the show. Food exhibits will be sold. Proceeds from the sale will be contributed to funds for the new 4-H show grounds near New Lenox. The public is invited to attend.

4-H Food demonstrations will also be held today. 4-H girls will also make flower arrangements today.

Winners in flower arrangements and food demonstrations will go to the state fair in Springfield, Aug. 13-15.

Here is the public's chance to see lots of interesting exhibits done by 4-H girls between the ages of 10 and 21 and to buy some good food.

The clothing dress revue is to be Aug. 1. There will be over 570 girls modeling the garments they have made. Again this is the public's chance to see a giant size style show put on by the 4-H girls.

The county committee who is working to make the show a success is as follows: Mrs. Norman Krapf of Manhattan, chairman, Mrs. Robert Baumann of Plainfield, vice-chairman, Mrs. Jack Chestnut of Mokena, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Glen Batson of New Lenox, Mrs. Herschel Clark of Plainfield, Mrs. Lester Schroeder of Peotone, and Virginia Wesoloski of Wilmington.

Committee working with the different projects are as follows: Mrs. John Breen of Elwood and Mrs. D. E. Bourrie of Plainfield, clothing; Mrs. Baumann, Mrs. Roy Cann of Peotone and Mrs. George Phillips of Wilmington, foods; Mrs. Fred Francis, Mrs. Paul Goodwin and Mrs. Edward Pollock, all of Wilmington, leaders will be helping in the different projects.

The public is invited both days to attend the Will county 4-H fair at Peotone.

State Builds Concrete Island at New Lenox

Village Now Has 1,429 Residents, Special Census Figures Show

Seeks Approval to Have Master Plan for Area

Three years ago Mrs. Ellis O'Daniel, of New Lenox who owns the building there that houses the postoffice and Elliott's drug store, asked the state highway department to do something about opening up a drain along the south side of U. S. 30 which was supposed to carry water away from the parking area.

She heard nothing from the state, Mrs. O'Daniel said, until three weeks ago when a crew arrived and began digging. Inquiries addressed to the workmen received only vague replies but this week no words were needed.

The project, which has taken the shape of a long, narrow concrete "island", has been completed and effectively blocks right angle parking by postoffice or drug store patrons. The state also put in a 15-inch concrete culvert that connects with a village drain, leading to Hickory creek.

The state highway department, which has been described by some as "island happy", has spent many thousands of dollars in erecting concrete barriers on West Jefferson street in Joliet to successfully maroon some homeowners and business firms.

The reason at New Lenox, according to information given Mrs. O'Daniel, is to restrict right angle parking so that motorists do not enter highways by backing their cars.

Mrs. O'Daniel contends there is space enough in front of her building to enable motorists to back out of parking places and turn so they are driving forward when they enter U. S. 30.

"I don't think this is fair to me," she said, "and I intend to make some inquiries at Springfield. If they are going to build an island in front of my property then there are other places where they should do the same thing."

Mrs. O'Daniel said she wanted it thoroughly understood that the concrete rampart in front of her property was not her doings, and if anyone wanted to complain about it he should take it up with the state highway department.

All Mrs. O'Daniel wanted was to get a drain opened.

pet owners become disowners, and dogs are as scarce as watches and sheep when assessors come around.

In some communities, he learned, dog licenses are collected by police.

The population of Orland Park has almost doubled since the regular official count was taken by the U. S. Bureau of Census in 1950, according to a special census just completed by the same office.

The 1950 census showed Orland Park to have a population of 788.

The special census just completed this week shows the population to be 1,429, an increase of 81 per cent in the past eight years.

This increase in population means an increase in the amount of money the village will receive as its share of the state motor fuel fund. Revenue from the gasoline tax is shared by the state with counties, municipalities and to a small extent with townships. The amount each receives is worked out by formula and in the case of cities and villages it amounts to approximately $5 a head.

More Money from State
The special census at Orland shows an increase of 641 in the population and that number multiplied by five means an increase of $3,205 in motor fuel tax for (Continued to page 2)

Boy Scout Spirit is Undampened When Rains Flood Camp Site

While activities were restricted for Boy Scout troop 40 of Mokena, their spirits were not dampened by the flood conditions at the Boy Scout reservation near Morris, where they recently spent a week camping.

All boating and canoeing was canceled when the lake channel was diverted from the dam, emptying the lake completely.

When the water flooded the camp site where they were located on the extreme south end of the lake, the troop set up equipment and tents on the north and west side of the parade grounds.

Rescue Calf
Wayne Swanberg spotted a calf being swept thru the flooded brush, passing the word downstream in an effort to have it rescued. It was not until the water had gone down that the calf was found and rescued from the branches of a pine tree.

The whitefaced heifer, about five weeks old, was claimed by a farmer two days later.

Despite the flooding, the scouts continued their program while leaders were busy drying out electric motors and repairing the bridge and gaps in the earthen dike.

It was necessary to cancel parents participation night on Thursday as the gaps in the earthen dike widened and the bridges fell out.

Enter Contests

The results of the "Big Night" program were as follows: rifle skeet shot, 1st troop 16; 2nd troop 9; and 3rd, a tie between 40, 76, and 89, with David Howell, scoring 35 points for 40.

In archery, 1st troop 76; 2nd troop 89; and 3rd a tie between 20 and 40 with Ronnie Baden getting 35 points for the Mokena troop.

String burning; 1st troop 110; 2nd troop 76; knot tying, 1st troop 76; 2nd troop 110;

The Planning Commission has met recently with the Education and Teaching Associates, Inc., of Evanston, about drafting such a plan.

Meetings have also been held with officials of Frankfort who are willing to accept such a plan to aid in the cost.

The cooperative plan between the communities will cost about $8,400, with each village raising about $2,100. The remainder of the finances is expected to come thru state and federal grants.

It has been suggested that Mokena give about $100 a month for 15 months and the remaining $600 be obtained from other sources.

3rd troop 28.

In lieu of the boat race, a tripod lash was held with the following results: 1st, troop 89; 2nd troop 40; 3rd troop 110; Jim Gorman secured the most points for the Mokena troop.

Student for Lincoln-Way to Arrive Wednesday

Ella Jensen, the Danish girl who will gain some firsthand knowledge of America during the coming school year when she will attend classes at Lincoln-Way high, is scheduled to leave Denmark at 5 a. m. next Tuesday morning, Aug. 5 and is due to arrive at New York the following day.

Just when she will reach Frankfort, where she is to make her home for the next year, depends upon whether she flies to Chicago or comes by bus.

According to information available here students assigned to schools in the far west are flown to their destinations but on shorter hauls—say like from New York to Chicago—they are usually placed aboard a bus because bus tickets are much cheaper than plane tickets.

Whether Ella will travel by bus or air is not known yet.

Since she is young, in good health and possesses muscles and bones that can withstand the rigors of bus travel, Miss Jensen probably would like to travel over the highways. She would get a closer look at the country and people if she journeyed by bus and probably she would like that.

Ella is to make her home with the Marvin Fosters at Frankfort. Mrs. Foster is in the home economics department at Lincoln-Way. The Fosters have a daughter and son of school age and the entire family will go to Chicago to meet their guest.

On Aug. 12 the Lincoln-Way Student Council is to have an "arrival party" for Miss Jensen. The affair is to be held at the Burton Breidert home in Frankfort—where there is a swimming pool—and is scheduled for 6 o'clock. The assistant principal at Lincoln-Way, Earl Dieken, is the faculty sponsor for the student council.

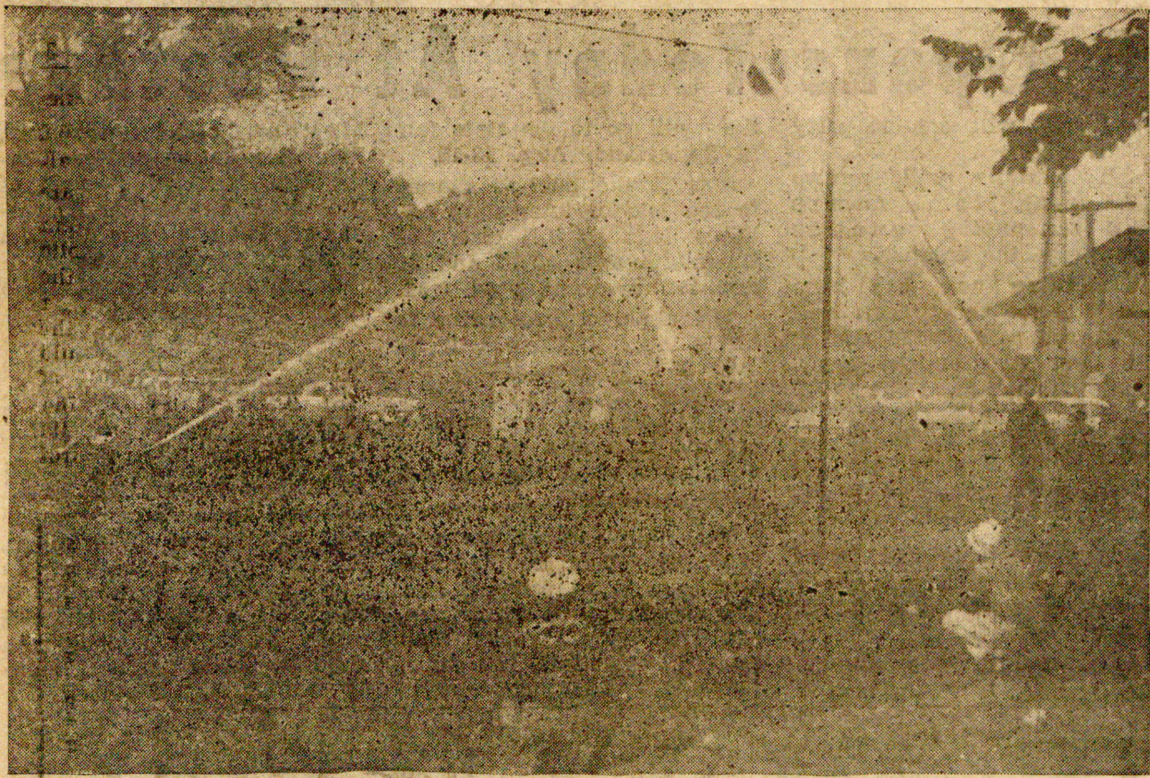

NURSERY SCHOOL ENDS THIS WEEK

This school is a project of the Junior Woman's club of Orland Park. This year and it not only gives mothers a little rest but also serves to prepare the youngsters for school and how to get along in an organized society. Mrs. Linda Lee Moody, first grade teacher at the Orland Park school, is in charge of the nursery school which has been in session now for a month. Assisting her this year is 14-year-old Joan Eckel (left). There were 41 children enrolled in the school this year and the average daily attendance has been 36. Just think of all the energy contained in 36 youngsters of this age. On the other hand maybe you shouldn't—just thinking about it wears one out.

A WET SPORT. this contest waged by firemen to determine which department can drive a 55-pound sphere to which end of the wire from which it is suspended. The driving is done with streams of water, propelled under 100 pounds of pressure. The contestants must keep the streams on the ball—to direct them against their opposition constitutes a foul and loss of the contest. In this picture the Frankfort department is shown scoring a win over Mokena. A few minutes later, however, Frankfort had bowed to Manhattan. The water ball contest was a part of the Frankfort Jamboree program last Saturday. (Marvin Smith photo)

Orland Village Board Objects to Spot Zoning

The Orland Park village board wishes to go on record as opposing an amendment to the Cook county zoning ordinance to classify an acre tract on the east side of Wolf rd., 500 feet south of 171st st., Orland township as B-2, which permits taverns.

A public hearing on a petition to amend the ordinance will be held at 8:45 p.m. July 31, in the Orland Park village hall.

The board's objections are based on what they term amounts to "spot zoning."

A restaurant is located at the spot and the owner wishes to install a bar to sell liquor on the premises.

VILLAGE NOW—

the year. When the total population of 1,429 is multiplied by five the total amount of Orland's share of the gasoline tax is $7,145.

This additional revenue will enable the village to do more work in keeping up streets.

Trustee Bretland A. Blair and Mayor W. R. Schussler, Jr., who completed the arrangements for the census, said yesterday that it will cost the village about $400.

B. J. Fitzgerald, special census supervisor of the U. S. Bureau of Census, in charge of the job at Orland Park, praised his crew of three enumerators Jeanette A. Lebens, Ruth E. Mueller and Vera E. Zerbs, who conducted the house to house canvass. He also expressed his thanks for the cooperation given by the citizens of Orland Park.

The official date of the census was July 24, and any persons living there on that date who believe they were not enumerated are asked to fill out the "Missed Persons Form" run elsewhere in this issue and mail it to the Census Supervisor, care Village Hall, Orland Park.

The Missed Person Form requires the following information: Name, address, relationship to head of household, such as wife, son, lodger; race, sex, age.
In a number of instances, after two or three unsuccessful attempts to locate anyone at home, the enumerators obtained the required information from neighbors. It is suggested by Fitzgerald, before mailing the form that persons who believe they were missed contact their neighbors to determine whether they supplied the information.

Service Station at New Lenox to Have Grand Opening

Mokena Firemen to Hold Picnic

Members of the Mokena volunteer fire department will hold their annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 3. This is a family affair and this year it will be held on the Troxel farm on LaPorte road, just east of Mokena.

The picnic is to begin at noon and each family is to bring lunch. Beverages will be furnished.

Pony rides will be provided for the children and there will be games, races and fun for all, according to the committee in charge.

Artillery Base Graduates 14 in Special School

Outstanding scores at the 22nd Artillery Group Preparatory school in Orland Park, recently advanced the education of 14 level by an average of three years for Private Dempsey W. Bush, Headquarters Battery, 22nd Artillery group; Privates John T. Hughes and Dennis L. Kitch, Charlie Battery, 13th AAA Missile Battalion; Specialist Second Class Roger Lloyd, Bravo Battery, 79th AAA Missile Battalion; Specialist Second Class James W. McClee, Medical Detachment, 49th AAA Missile Battalion, and Sergeant Ernest Milton, Bravo Battery, 49th AAA Missile Battalion. Private Hughes and Private Bush tied for the distinction of being Honor Student.

A total of 14 men enrolled in the class. All graduated. The class was established for volunteer enlisted personnel, desirous of continuing their career service, but whose Army classification battery aptitude area scores precluded re-enlistment.

The course was eight weeks of full time schooling. The instruction included English, elementary American history, elementary World geography and arithmetic.

The next class is scheduled to begin on Aug. 27.

Mrs. Anna Hensel Has Heart Attacks

Mrs. Anna Hensel, of Mokena suffered two heart attacks last week, one on Wednesday and the other on Saturday. In both instances the Mokena inhaler squad revived her.

The first attack occurred while she was visiting at the Kluth farm, south of Mokena. Dr. Merle Otto attended her at that time. She was stricken again on Saturday, at her home. At that time Dr. Claude Otto was the attending physician.

Outdoor Water Meters Bring Some Complaints

According to a village ordinance in Orland Park, water meters are installed in vaults along property lines rather than inside of buildings. This may be changed however, according to discussion between trustees at Monday's meeting.

The contractor for the Orland Park Hills subdivision, James J. Duffy, where water meters have been installed according to ordinance, complaints that the meters are affected by weather condition. The meter vaults fill up with water when it rains and in the winter time, they freeze.

The ordinance was enacted to minimize the possibility of the meters being tampered with if installed inside buildings.

Postal Rates Up Tomorrow

A last-minute warning that new postage rates will go into effect tomorrow, Aug. 1, was issued today by the postmasters of the area.

They cautioned that regular first-class letters will require 4 cents postage an ounce; air mail letters 7 cents an ounce; air mail postal cards 5 cents each, and regular postal cards 3 cents each.

Where mail users still have on hand supplies of 3 cent stamps, 2 cent postal cards, 4 cent air mail postal cards and 6 cent air mail stamps, they may be used by the addition of an ordinary 1 cent stamp.

Plenty of these are on hand at the local post office, plus large supplies of the new. Stamped envelopes are also in good supply in the needed denominations.

Lightning Bolt Showers Guests With Shingles

Roof shingles flying thru the air enlivened a gathering of 30 dealers of plastic ware for home demonstrations at the Gordon Bay home, 6542 Parkside drive, Tinley Park last Sunday evening.

The group were in the garage when lightning struck the roof of the house, leaving a gaping hole. The flying shingles was the first indication that the home had been the target of the lightning bolt. No one was in the home at the time.

Fortunately the fire which followed was put out by the rain. The Tinley fire and police departments responded to the call for help. A tarpaulin was placed over the roof and a bucket placed in the attic to catch water.

The interested bystanders had swelled to more than 100 persons before the excitement died down.

Mosquito Control in South Cook County Wins Praise of Expert

South Cook County has the dubious distinction of being one of the most difficult problem areas for mosquito control east of the Mississippi in the view of M. D. Bogue, U. S. Public Health sanitary engineer from the Communicable Disease Center, Atlanta. The combination of extremely poor drainage and densely populated areas greatly magnifies the nuisance problem, Bogue said, for in South Cook literally hundreds of inhabited and uninhabited plots of land are potential mosquito producing sites.

Bogue visited the South Cook County Mosquito Abatement district on Monday and Tuesday in company with A. P. Bell, John C. Barwick, and C. E. Kammer of the Louisville-Jefferson county health department. Following a severe encephalitis outbreak in the Louisville area in 1956, state legislation put a county-wide mosquito control program into operation. The Kentucky visitors spent the two days observing the South Cook laboratory and field operations, noting practices here that can be applied to their situation.

Visitors View Work

The Kentuckians also commented on the difficulties in controlling mosquitoes in South Cook compared with Jefferson county, the both districts are approximately the same size, 340 square miles. According to Bell, director-engineer of the Louisville-Jefferson county health department, there are no vast low lying areas subject to intermittent flooding such as he saw in South Cook, in his Kentucky district.

Altho the Kentucky mosquito control program is only in its first season, indications are that the major problem from a public health standpoint is the Culex mosquito which also occurs in the South Cook District, but that their situation is such that the floodwater mosquito, Aedes vexans, which plagues South Cook residents to the greatest extent, will not be an extensive nuisance in the Louisville area.

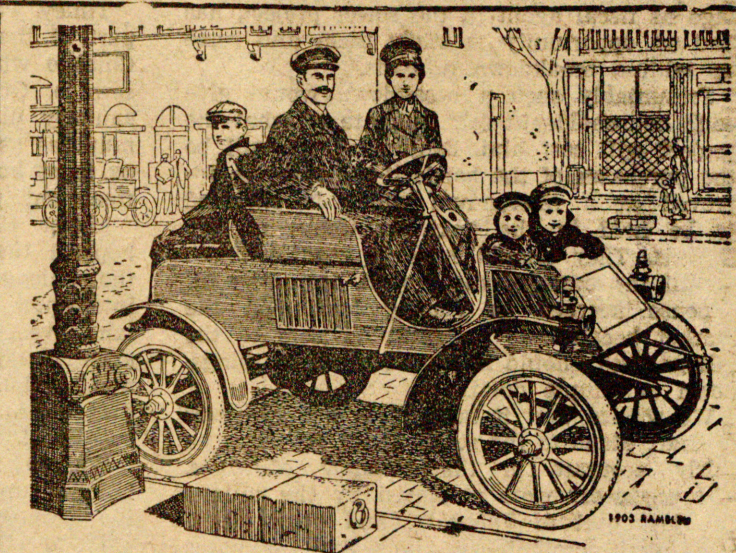

The two items in the South Cook operation that drew the most interest and comment from the Kentuckians were the pre-hatch treatment of DDT that is applied here during the winter months prior to the first spring flooding, and the objective application of light trap information to guide the South Cook program.

Praises System

Bogue, who serves as a consultant to state, county and municipal health departments thruout the eastern United States, recommended a visit to the South Cook District for the Kentucky officials because it is the outstanding example of the soundest basis for mosquito control of any operations that have come under his surveillance. He stated that the degree of planning and the soundness of approach that has characterized the South Cook District from the beginning places it in a superior position to many control operations that are done on an emergency, and sometimes hit-or-miss fogging basis. He pointed out that altho South Cook is fortunate in having a nuisance problem rather than a serious public health problem, that in the event of any outbreak of a mosquito borne disease, the people of South Cook would be far ahead as a result of the information gained by the district as a result of its source location and control program.

* Jim Conway, WBBM-TV's Television Star of "In Town Tonight", meets Mrs. Harper Richards of Chicago, Illinois.

"Our kitchen stays so much cleaner..."

and really, nothing looks as modern as an electric range!"

says Mrs. Richards

Modern automatic electric ranges mean less time wasted on kitchen drudgery. Mrs. Richards, partner in Harper Richards Associates, devotes much of the time and energy she saves to Interior Designing.

JIM CONWAY: I imagine a modern kitchen is important to the woman of the house. But do you run into this trend to electric cooking often in your work as an interior designer?

MRS. RICHARDS: Yes I do, Jim. And I have noticed a decided increase in the number of women who want not only an electric range... but an all-electric kitchen. Of course, it seems to me a modern electric range is really the first step toward modern electric living.

JIM CONWAY: Well, what do you consider to be the big advantages of electric cooking?

MRS. RICHARDS: My own experience tells me electric cooking is much cleaner. And cooler, too. Our oven doesn't heat up the kitchen. There are also many automatic features with the modern electric range that give a woman greater versatility as a cook. She can roast, broil, boil, deep-fat fry, grill, bake and barbecue—all automatically.

JIM CONWAY: And very economically. As you probably know, the average-size family can cook electrically for about 7¢ a day.

MRS. RICHARDS: Yes, and the woman of the house will spend a good deal less time in the kitchen in the bargain, Jim.

Every day, more modern women cook the modern electric way

The Tinley Park Sewer Situation

We were glad to hear last week that the engineers drafting plans for the proposed Tinley Park sewer system have arrived at an estimate of the cost for such project and that the figures will be forthcoming soon.

The mayor of Tinley Park stated at the village board meeting last week that the figures will be given out when the bond house of Benjamin Lang, which is serving the village as fiscal agent in the sewer project, has had an opportunity to study them and come up with a breakdown of costs.

Presumably such a breakdown would give each householder a fair estimate of what the project will cost him. Benjamin Lang will be the purchaser of the bonds if the issue is approved at a referendum which is expected to be held in the next six weeks or two months. They should have a good estimate on all the costs of the project, including all expense accrued in placing bonds on the market because as financial advisers to the village they should know all of these things, down to minute details.

We realize that it takes time for engineers to draft plans to the stage where they can be fairly accurate in the estimate of costs. The engineers were employed by the village the last part of February, and proposed to have their preliminary plans and estimates ready within 90 days. We did not expect them to have the work done in that time and they do not appear to be too late but now that they have announced the figures are ready we feel that Benjamin Lang should expedite their part of the business so the public may share in the information.

Being a part of Tinley Park we are deeply concerned with its well being and are in favor of those things which will add to the growth and prosperity of the community and its people. We think that a sewer system is a necessity, not only for its contribution to the convenience and health of the residents, but also as a means of attracting industrial and commercial firms to the area.

Tinley Park and other suburban towns have outgrown septic tanks. A sewer system is just as important to the growth of a community as electric lights, gas and telephones. It really is more important because disposal of sanitary waste is one of the foundation stones in the preservation of public health.

Tinley Park is fortunate in that it is a part of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Chicago which eventually will dispose of its sewage. Orland Park is also served by the sanitary district but such Will county communities as Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox must build and operate their own sewage treatment plants.

Mayor Elmer Knudsen of Tinley Park is hopeful that he will succeed in persuading the Chicago sanitary district to extend an interceptor to Harlem ave. instead of Ridge-land ave., as originally planned. This would save Tinley residents more than a quarter million dollars, it is claimed, so it is hoped that the mayor's power of persuasion will be successful.

We do not criticize village officials for holding up information relative to costs of the proposed improvement until they were able to offer definite figures but now the engineers have completed their work we do not believe that it should take the fiscal agent too much time to finish his part.

It is important that the public be informed as soon as possible where the sewer is to be laid, including the approximate cost to each householder, methods of financing and which procedure will provide the best job for the least amount of money.

After all the public must foot the bill.

There is no question but that a sewer system must be built in Tinley and it should be built as soon as possible. The only question is how to do the best job possible.

Dairy Foods Account for 16.7% of Calories Consumed Last Year

In 1957, if your eating habits were average for the U. S. you consumed milk and other dairy products which utilized 695 pounds of milk produced on the farm, says the National Dairy Council.

Divided into individual dairy foods, your purchases last year were as follows: 241 qts. of fluid milk and cream; 8.5 lbs. of butter; 7.8 lbs. of cheese; 15.1 lbs. of evaporated and condensed milk; 5.7 lbs. of nonfat dry milk; 19.8 qts. of ice cream and other frozen dairy products; 5.2 lbs. of cottage cheese; 5.4 qts. of fluid nonfat milk; 16.4 qts. of butter-milk; and 4.1 qts. of chocolate milk.

For the above-listed foods, you spent about 20 cents of each food dollar—or 20% of your food budget. But for this investment, you received many essential nutrients in excess of that percentage. For example, dairy foods contributed to the national food supply 26% of the available protein, 23.5% of the fat, 77.6% of the calcium, and almost 48% of the riboflavin. Weight watchers will be interested to know that all dairy foods combined contributed only 16.7% of the calories offered by America's food.

How much milk was produced by dairy farmers in 1957? The answer—contained in the dairy organization's just-published 1958 edition of "How Americans Use Their Dairy Foods"—is 126.3 billion pounds. This all time record production was accomplished with only 20.5 million cows, a smaller herd than the United States has had at any time in the last 40 years. The increased total production is due to greater milk yield per cow—a 3% increase over 1956 to an average 6,162 lbs. pounds per dairy animal.

This is a reflection of a long-term trend in which dairy farmers, through improved breeding and feeding practices, have increased the efficiency of each cow. Had the 1957 herd produced only at the 1925 rate per cow, 50% more cows would have been needed to meet the production record of 1957.

The sharp decline in the "real" price of milk—as contrasted to the increase in the money price of milk—is demonstrated in the following facts: In 1890, milk retailed at an average 7 cents per quart. Despite this low price, the average factory employee had to work about 25 minutes to earn wages equal to the price of a quart of milk. By 1929, it took 15 minutes of factory work to earn a quart and in 1957—only 7 minutes, milk; in 1947—10 minutes; the dairy publication reveals.

and thanks to you, the Tinley Park Times is doing a good job. But why not give us an editorial on these matters? As an outstanding paper in our community and one that is read in most homes, I feel that you should play a major part in our village government's activities. You have seen the sewer contract, and also know the facts about the fiscal agent and financial adviser, and what a useless and expensive item they are on us taxpayers who are scraping the bottom of the barrel to pay what we now owe our government.

Why cannot our board of trustees be as alert as Mr. Suhs? If we had more members on the board like Bob, maybe we could get not only our sanitary system, but also some drainage and a water reservoir. Please Tinley Park Times, give us your views.

Still Confused

To the Editor:

Many of us in town would like to know what the $5,000 dollars for garbage disposal is for. This appeared in the budget for the coming fiscal year. Questions are asked of the trustees but they don't seem to know either. Can it be a fund to fall back on in case of another part of the budget running short? To read that budget one would get the idea that money was just pouring in to the village wanting to be spent. And the boys are sure spending it.

We also noticed that a license is to be granted to the former roller rink. I guess McCarthy and the others decided things had quieted down and a license could be issued over the objections of the voters. Maybe a political promise was made during the last election that he would be granted a permit to sell liquor. I hope the boys in the village hall remember that we, the voters, put them in office and we can also take them out.

While we are at it ripping the boys apart, I also noticed in one of the previous editions of the Tinley Times that the head man also included a new building or an addition to the vilpeople want. They were elected to serve the people and to keep them informed on their work. It is our privilege to know and to be told the correct information of public affairs. There is no harm in the truth.

It is not possible to divulge all detail statistics, but we should be informed on the basis facts. It is a shame that the board has not been informed at least this far. A one-man show will only lead to mistakes and costly ones at that.

President Elmer Knudsen has to sell his bill of goods. To do this, a well informed person is more likely to buy than if he were affronted by a high pressure salesman who drops in on him and says that you have to buy now or never. I do not want Tinley to take a backward step, but at this time I would have to say no to the salesman. How about you?

This is why I am voicing my opinion, or feelings. Tinley has to go forward and it can only do this with well informed people. I do not want to tell Mr. Knudsen how to run the village, yet being a voter, I have a right to voice my opinion. I say, come out Mr. Knudsen and let us know what you are doing, be boastful, inform your board; let us all work together.

Tigers Down Tinley Pony Stars 4 to 2

Pitchers' Duel Features Game; Police Team Meets Orland Sunday

The Tinley Tigers, a member of the South Section of the Cook County Police league, used an off-date last Sunday to play an All-Star team from the Tinley Park Pony loop, and the affair turned into a pitchers' duel which was won by the Tigers 4 to 2.

14-year-old Paul Schultdt, Tigers' pitcher, gave up but three hits while Tom Propp, 5, on the mound for the Pony stars yielded four.

This Sunday the Tigers will resume play in the league as hosts to Orland Park. The game will be played at Tinley Memorial park, starting at 2 o'clock.

In the game against the "ony talent last Sunday a compromise was reached between officials of the two teams under which the base-lines were set at 83 feet. The Police league rules call for regulation 90-foot base paths, while in the Pony league the bases are 75 feet apart.

Close Contest

It didn't appear to make much difference whether the base lines were short or long as they didn't carry to much traffic.

The Stars drew first blood with help from the Tigers. The Police team made three errors and Lon Curlee utilized them to get home. Propp had the Tigers handcuffed in the first two frames but in the third Schultdt aided his own cause by leading off with a single and then proceeded to steal second and third. Satchel Coley got a walk and Eggert scored Schultdt with a sacrifice fly. Yogurt Haehlein, of Mokena, drove a sharply hit ball thru short and Gallagher drove in Haehlein and Coley to make the score 3 to 1. The Tigers scored again in the fourth inning on Koning's single and a boot by the Pony third basemen that scored Koning and allowed Romaneghi to reach first.

Beat Orland Previously

The Stars scored their second run in the sixth on a single by Punis and a combination of Police errors. In the fifth Schultdt issued three consecutive walks and then settled down to strike out the side with the top of the batting order coming up. Albright's single in the seventh was the Stars' third hit. Haehlein singled in the fifth but died on second.

In the game coming up Sunday the Orland Park Police league team probably will be out for blood. It scored a 2 to 1 win over Matteson last week, which many figured as an upset, and victory can be heady stuff.

Matteson had difficulty in fielding a team last Sunday, it was explained, because a part of the squad is on the Park Forest Junior American Legion team which was in a play-off.

Tinley beat Orland in their previous meeting this year, 4 to 2. Bressi is scheduled to do the pitching chores for the Tigers.

Anfield Would Free Pony League Talent to Play in Other Circuits

The ball game Sunday, between the Tinley Park Police league entry and a star outfit selected from the ranks of the Tinley Pony circuit, served Lyman Anfield, manager of the Police team, with a springboard into a subject on which he holds strong views.

Pony league managers hold that their players cannot play in other leagues, Anfield says, while he contends they should be free agents and able to play in more than the circuit.

"This game Sunday," said Anfield, "proves a point I've been trying to make all year, that the so-called Pony league has players equal to the best on the Police team. (The Police team defeated the Pony All-Stars 4 to 2).

"According to Pony league rules," he continued, "13 and 14 year-olds play with that circuit and 15-year olds move up to the next higher league, in this case the Police league.

Hard on Police Team

"Fifteen is a good year and is utterly wasted for some of these young players. My position is that these 15 year olds should be allowed to play both Pony and Police league ball. The Pony managers told them they had to play one or the other but not both.

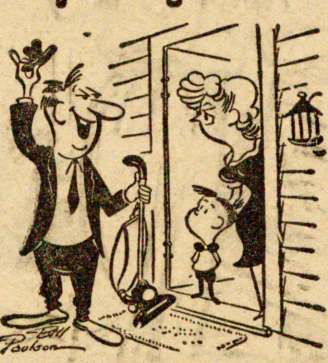

"It almost broke up the Police league. We were down to 11 players in the middle of the season. Naturally these young players will ride the Police bench, unless they are exceptional. They want to be heroes in the Pony league when they are less than average in Police.

"Why shouldn't these fellows play all they can during the week with Pony teams and on Sundays against tougher pitching? The Pony manager don't have a case except a case of out-and-out jealousy."

Rhodium, one of the platinum group metals, has a faculty for remaining bright and is completely resistant to a variety of corrosives.

Elephants, alligators, parrots and turtles have an average life span of 100 years or more.

My Neighbors

"Consider me not as a mere salesman, Madam, but rather as a knight in shining armor whose destiny lies in ending the recession."

Trail Riders Plan 2nd Annual Horse Show

The Trail Riders, a group of teenagers from Palos, Orland Park and Tinley, are busy with plans for the second annual Horse show which will take place Aug. 3 at 1:30 p.m. at Tom Treadway's Double T Ranch on 123rd st., 1 1/2 miles west of route 45.

There will be pleasure and horsemanship classes, races and relays, with trophies, ribbons and money prizes for the various events.

Entry blanks may be obtained at local stables or by calling Nancy Cairnes at Gibson 8-1416 or Sandy Mayhall at Gibson 8-0683. Any amateur rider may enter. No admission charge will be made. Spectators are invited.

Cotton Maple Scale is Here; Time to Spray

Perhaps you've recently noticed some cottonlike masses on maple trees and have wondered what they are. An entomologist with the Illinois Natural History Survey reports that they contain eggs of the cottony maple scale.

According to L. L. English, the cottony maple scale damages host plants by sucking the sap. He points out that the overwintering females do not become active until the sap begins flowing in the spring.

When the flow starts, the female begins laying eggs. Each female can lay between 1,500 and 3,000 eggs. And each mass of eggs, which forms a cotton-like appearance, is laid by one female.

The eggs hatch in late June or July. The first stage, or crawler stage, is the most active. Crawlers protect themselves by secreting a soft, waxy material that forms a scale. By fall the crawlers are mature and they overwinter as small, brown, flattened scales.

Cottony maple scales can be controlled with a malathion spray. Best results are obtained by timing the spray application for the crawler stage.

Crawlers are easily seen moving away from the mother scale in early summer. Use malathion at the rate of 1 1/2 to 2 pints of 50 per cent emulsion per 100 gallons of water.

New Lenox Lions to Dedicate Field at Small Fry Tournament

A Small Fry baseball tournament sponsored by the New Lenox Lions club is set for Saturday and Sunday afternoon at New Lenox. The tournament will bring together the teams from the Lincoln-Way high school district, Mokena, New Lenox, Frankfort and Manhattan. It affords an excellent opportunity for fans to see future Lincoln-Way ball players in action. All four teams have met in the regular season with mixed fortunes and they will be playing for keeps in the tournament.

New Lenox and Mokena will clash in the first game, which is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The second game, set for 3:30 will see Frankfort pitted against Manhattan.

The winners will play for the championship at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

The games will be played on the new ballfield the Lions have built on ground donated by the Harry E. Anderson post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in their Memorial park. The park is located north of the Rock Island tracks and one reaches the entrance by crossing over the tracks at the first road west of the village.

The New Lenox Lions will dedicate the field at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in ceremonies preceding the championship game.

Taking part in the program will be Mayor Lloyd Berlin, C. L. Klasing, past president of the Lions, under whom the project was started; Frank Goetschel, present president, and Edward R. Archer, commander of the VFW post.

Immediately after the game prizes will be awarded to the players.

Zion Lutheran	4	2
St. George	3	3
Reformed	0	5

The Methodists captured first place in the Tinley Park church baseball loop on Friday by knocking off the Lutherans in a tight 13-12, action packed game.

Lutheran trailing 10-0, came back in the third inning with seven runs. From then on it was nip and tuck. Both teams scored two more in the sixth frame, and the Methodists, after getting one more in the seventh, managed to stifle a late Lutheran rally in time to save the victory. Rich Tindall turned in two sparkling catches in left field for the Methodists, while Harry Verwey led the way with four hits.

On Wednesday St. George whipped the fading Reformed outfit 22-2, led by second baseman Gunther, who walked 3 home runs. Catholic pitchers Quigley and Zimmerman combined their talents to allow only six hits.

Methodist now holds a 1/2 game lead over Zion Lutheran and 1 1/2 games over St. George, but will have an opportunity to strengthen that lead this week when they play last place Reformed Church twice.

Wednesday, July 30 Reformed meets Methodist and Friday St. George meets Lutheran. Reformed will also play Methodist again Friday to make up an early-season rainout.

Openings for Men Bowlers on Tinley Park Team

There are still openings for men who would like to join the Tinley Park Men's Friday night bowling league, sponsored by local business men.

Bowling starts at 9:15 p.m. Any men interested in joining should call either KE 2-4977 or KE 2-2951.

Palos Police to Offer Course in Safety for Scooter Drivers

Because of the increasing complaints in the operation of scooters in the area and the substantial increase of accidents involving scooters, Police Chief Frank McGinty of Palos Park announced today that his juvenile officer, Capt. Frank Guetter is going to conduct three two-hour safety sessions in the Palos Park Village hall beginning Aug. 9 another on Aug. 16 and a final session Aug. 20.

The time of these sessions is set tentatively for 10 a.m. which will be decided on by the majority at the first meeting. These sessions will cover all phases of safety, causes of complaints and their remedies, safety rules of the road and common courtesy.

May Form Club

During the sessions it will also be decided by the youngsters if they wish to organize a scooter club for the purpose of mutual understanding of their problems and the possible self discipline of its members toward the understanding of the necessity for safety and courtesy to continue in the use of the public highways.

Chief McGinty explained surrounding communities and that he has talked to other finds that this is getting to be a major problem. He has stopped and warned many youngsters concerning their disregard of safety rules, he said and that unless something is done everyone will suffer. After a conference with his staff it was decided that sessions as outlined may bring about a better mutual understanding with the triangular aspect of citizen, police and scooter operator.

Open to All

Any youngster or parent within the reach of this communication is invited to attend these sessions and free cokes are to be served at each session.

Chief McGinty explained that a "sleeper" bill was enacted by the last session of legislature which allowed youngsters 14 years of age to operate scooters under 5 h.p. without the benefit of their understanding of their equal responsibility in the rules of the road or the common courtesy which is eventually the proximate cause of an accident.

Business and Finance

By MAURICE P. ANGLAND

A leading financial columnist has reported the results of a recent survey of opinion among professional investment managers. Of 25 reporting opinions, 13 were bullish, seven bearish, two somewhat skeptical, and three favor selective investment in conservative situations. These opinions were expressed in the face of stock market whose averages have been rising steadily for months.

Improving business influences these opinions, but the major influence is inflation. Inflation has become a way of life in the U. S. A. as it has been in most of the rest of the world.

Well selected common stocks because of their proven ability to at least compensate for depreciation of the dollar, have become the choice of most professional investment managers.

The continual erosion of the dollar is most painful to those living on pensions or with other fixed dollar incomes. The U. S. Senate finance committee's economists differed

Volunteers Give Over 10,000 Hours at Oak Forest Hospital

Oak Forest Hospital Volunteer Services department's six month report, January thru June, 1958, shows an increase of 1,437 1/4 hours of volunteer service over the previous year's figures.

In addition to writing letters for patients, reading to them, and acting as wheel chair escorts, Oak Forest's volunteers, under professional supervision, assist with occupational therapy, and compile psychological test findings. Volunteers are needed now to take shopping carts into the wards.

The volunteer staff of men, women, and the Volunteers, together contributed 10,481 1/4 hours during the past six months. In addition to these volunteers, who fulfill regularly assigned tasks during their day or days on duty each week, Oak Forest Hospital has other volunteers who function in an informal pattern as individuals or groups.

This year the regular staff was at its peak during March when 91 performed 1,476 hours of volunteer services.

as to causes and cures of economic fluctuation, but agreed that inflation has become a way of life.

Institutional buyers dominate. Oscar Jesness, professor emeritus of the University of Minnesota recently wrote, "the fear of depression outweighs disproportionately our dislike of inflation." Politically it is much harder to get support for anti-inflationary than for anti-depression measures. Jesness wrote, "Let the brakes

Last May, 1,502 1/4 hours were volunteered by 86 adults to lead the number of hours contributed in a single month.

There were 54 teenage boys and girls on duty during April contributing a total of 660 hours of service, the most hours of any month this year. While there were but 11 volunteers on duty during June, they contributed 203 1/4 hours of service.

Oak Forest Hospital Superintendent Schmidt considers the expanded volunteer program responsible for the increase in service during the last period. More interesting assignments have held the volunteer for longer periods of time.

Anyone wishing more information on volunteer opportunities at Oak Forest may contact Mrs. Hunter, at FU 8-2360 or WA 8-4200.

of inflation control take hold ever so gently and someone is sure to cry out in protest."

It is rather well agreed that the stability of the stock market is due to activity of the institutional investors. High taxation is taking away from the importance of individual buyers of securities and institutional buyers dominate.

Institutional funds are handled by professional managers who have wide experience in investment activity.

The main institutional buyers are the Mutual Funds, Pension Funds and Profit Sharing Managers of these funds are usually highly trained men and their investment selections are generally based on long term objectives. These funds have been increasingly in higher proportion of common stocks.

Such institutional funds receive money continuously and cannot stay liquid for any long period. Their activities demand that the funds be put to work to earn more money.

Pension Funds Grow

Pension funds and insurance companies have actuarial requirements to meet while Mutual Funds and Profit Sharing Plans have stiff competition to provide the best records of income and appreciation. Their results over various periods of time, are largely public information and can be compared closely. Institutional buying of securities is regular during good and bad times.

The Securities & Exchange Commission calculated that at the close of 1957, that trustee-managed pension funds of corporations had assets of more than $19 billion. This sum does not include insurance company administered funds. Mutual Funds are in excess of $10 billion. An example of growth of pension funds is had by fact that the General Electric Pension Fund now has assets almost equal to those of General Electric itself.

The professional managers investment preferences appear to be,

Home Bureau Entertains Members of Country Charms 4-H Unit

By ELIZABETH B. ANDERSON

Lockport 886-W-2

The Homer-Lockport Home bureau unit met at the Lockport Congregational church last Wednesday evening, having as special guests the Country Charms 4-H club whom they sponsored. The girls modeled garments which they have made during the past year and also sold home made cookies.

The student dance at 33C school district Thursday evening was well attended. There will be two more similar parties before the fall school opening. The next one will be Aug. 14.

Two house permits are listed for Homer township this week. Robert J. Erdmann is building a $12,000 home on Haas road, 1/2 mile north of Rte. 6, and William Hesterman of Joliet, a $10,500 house on 139th st. east of 4A.

Patricia Stanola, Wayne Willis Exchange Vows in St. George Church

A double ring ceremony in St. George Catholic church on July 12, united Miss Patricia Stanola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stanola, of 13721 - 92nd ave., Orland Park, and Wayne H. Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willis, of 17757 - 67th ave., Tinley Park.

The church was decorated with four bouquets of white gladioli and white carnations for the wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. Thomas O'Connell.

Anne Feldner, organist, played appropriate selections.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, was beautiful in a Chantilly full length gown, which had alternate layers of nylon tulle. Her jewelry was a single strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

She carried a white prayer book on which were placed white roses with streamers of lily of the valley.

The maid of honor, Dorothy Stanola, wore a blue chiffon ballerina length gown.

The groom's attendant was Melvin Doogan, brother-in-law. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stanola wore a pink nylon dress and white accessories.

The groom's mother wore a pink lace over satin dress and white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 100 guests was held in St. George school hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Punch, cake and coffee were served.

The young couple spent one week at Bass Lake, Ind., and are now living in the home of the groom's parents.

The bride is employed at the Jewel Food store in Palos Heights and the groom at W. A. Alexander and Company, Chicago.

The honored guest was presented with a corsage of white gladioli tied with blue ribbons.

Novel games were played during the evening and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Edward Seivert, Mrs. Lester Koerner, Mrs. Walter Gougar Jr., and Mrs. Robert Doyle. Duplicate prizes were given to the bride-elect, as well as many nice gifts from the guests. Her bridesmaids-to-be, the Misses Gail Heptig, Jean Rowsell, and Virginia Zeigler, assisted her in opening the many gifts.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a linen covered table centered with a bouquet of var-colored gladioli, with blue candles in crystal holders decorating either end of the table.

Quartet tables were decorated in blue and white, also, the chosen colors of the bride-to-be.

Approximately 40 guests attended, from Joliet, Lockport, Mokena, Frankfort, Manhattan and New Lenox.

Daily Meditation

Read Psalm 66:1-9
How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land? (Psalm 137:4).

The children of Israel were slaves in Babylon. They were desolate, heartbroken, and homesick. Their masters in Babylon added insult to injury when they demanded that the weary workers sing the sacred songs of Israel. The Babylonians wanted to laugh and be amused. But the poor psalmist of Homewood, which has one another and exclaim in their utter helplessness: "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?"

But where is the Lord's song needed more than in a strange land? In the desolate, godless, sinful, hopeless places the one thing most needed is to hear the songs of God.

Today we ourselves are in places where the Lord's songs are needed, where they may never be heard unless we sing them. Therefore, let us radiate the music of our God where

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Anderson entertained guests from other suburbs at a patio party Saturday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ruddy of Silver Lake Dells, the Richard Little's of Oak Forest, the Jack Maziaka's of Riverdale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shaft of Scottsdale and Mr. and Mrs. William Mizar of Beverly Hills. Guests dined on barbecued chicken and danced to name bands via radio. The Andersons made good use of their newly black topped drive way for dancing under the stars.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodbury were hosts at a chicken barbecue held on their patio Saturday night. Guests from both parties mingled and enjoyed dancing to favorite records beneath the stars and by the light of flickering torches which encircled the flagstone patio. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green and son Greg of Orland Park, Mr. and Mrs. Art Aiello, Tony and Terry, the William Donohues and Nancy and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. William Garvin, Mr. and Mrs. William Shelden, Mrs. Bebe Andrew, the Robert Andersons and son Charles Harris, and the Jack Nelsons and daughter Janine.

July 18, Mrs. Ralph Leeland entertained guests at a buffet luncheon in her lovely home on Redondo Lane. A showplace the Leelands did the interior themselves. At one end of the living room is a massive field stone fireplace with a raised hearth for extra seating. The fireplace extends across one wall and the house is furnished in Mexican decor.

Mrs. Leeland, an artist, has several of her paintings hung one especially lovely one is in the breezeway and is viewed from her kitchen window. It is a scene looking thru a window, her counter top work space in the kitchen area is Venetian mosaic which she and her husband patiently and beautifully installed.

July 15 the Laguna Woods Home owners met at the Orland Park school. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Geo. Brown, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. William Garvin, Mrs. H. E. Anderson and Mrs. Matthew McBride. Fruit punch and cookies were served.

PRAYER

Our Father, we have found ourselves in places which were hard and depressing. We have faced burdens which were terribly heavy. May we at such times and places take heart and sing songs to Thy honor and praise. May the music of faith, hope, and love radiate from our hearts this day. This we ask in the name of Christ, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Mrs. Alma Gillogly Retires After 40 Years Service With Rock Island

Mrs. Alma Wythx Gillogly, 54-second st., was honored recently with a surprise dinner and party held in McGowan's restaurant, Ashland ave., Chicago, by fellow employees of the Rock Island railroad at the Hamilton offices. The occasion marked the retiring of Mrs. Gillogly from her work after serving there 40 years.

She was presented a white orchid corsage. The table was decorated with a bouquet of pink and white carnations, stock and chrysanthemums. The 56 fellow workers who were present gave Mrs. Gillogly a purse of money as a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. John Balaz who spent their vacation in Colorado, where they made the trip to the summit of Pike's Peak, are expected home soon. By cards received they did not enjoy the climb to the peak, saying it was too high. Mokena will look good to them on their return. It was a particularly good trip otherwise, because of the recovery from a serious illness by Mr. Balaz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koenig, former Mokena residents who went to St. Petersburg, Fla. last fall, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spiess for the past week. This week they are spending with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deverich in Chicago. They will return to Mokena Aug. 4 to be here when the moving van comes to take their furniture to St. Pete, where they have bought a home, at 3125 32nd ave. N. and where they expect to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelch and family spent the past three weeks at Bass Lake, Ind. where they enjoyed a good vacation.

The Mokena 500 club enjoyed an annual outing Wednesday afternoon when they gathered in the home of the Misses Kluths, south Wolf rd. Potluck dinner was served at noon.

Three Mokena youths left Tuesday for San Diego, Calif., for the navy training center. They are Dean M. Liston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Liston, Leonard Hemrick, son of Mrs. Walter Schoeneck and Terry Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Marshall. The boys all enlisted recently for navy service. The Mokena Teen club entertained for them at a farewell party Monday night at Listons.

Betty and Judy, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lehmann have returned from a week's stay at Circle Pines center, a co-operative camp for boys and girls on Stewart Lake, Cloverdale, Mich. They were part of the youth camp and slept in tents. They had a wonderful time swimming, and also learned many folk dances and folk songs. Both girls are enrolled in the swimming classes at the Joliet YMCA this summer, Judy being in the "fish" classification and Betty in the "shark."

Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Oswald and daughters Shirley Rose, Catherine Ann and Cynthia of Guthrie, Okla., have returned to their home after spending a week here with their aunt, Mrs. Lydia Ryan and other relatives. They also visited with their aunt, Mrs. Rose Bechstein who is a patient in Silver Cross hospital, and other relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Logan and Miss Jeanne Logan of Delaware, O. spent the weekend with their aunt, Mrs. Lydia Ryan and other relatives. Dr. Logan is the physician at the college at Delaware.

Mrs. Cecelia Walsh entertained the Afternoon pinochle club last Wednesday at the home of her sisters, the Misses Irene, Justine and Luella Kluth at their farm home south of Mokena. A bountiful potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon following which pinochle was played.

The Mokena Medical center which is being built at 194th and Wolf road by Dr. P. T. Demus, is progressing nicely. He and his associates expect to be able to move into it by Oct. 1. Dr. Reinhold Killian D. D. S. of Chicago, Dr. Olga Mociuk of Joliet, pediatrician and optometrist will be on the staff in the beginning, in addition to Dr. Demus. He and his family expect to move into the former Oswald home which he has purchased and which is now being remodeled by Oct. 1.

There will be no meetings

A LOT OF SMOKE but a small fire. A storage shed owned by Berg Construction Co. was destroyed by fire last Friday evening between 6:30 and 7 o'clock. The shed was located in North Parkside. A tar paper roof was responsible for the cloud of black smoke seen here, completely obscuring the shed. The picture was taken by 13-year old Donald Hayward, 6412 Honey Lane Drive.

150 Persons Attend Reception for Methodist Pastor and Family

By DELORES ANDERSON
Phone New Lenox 3651

A reception was held last Wednesday evening in the Fellowship hall of the Methodist church, honoring the Rev. Alfred Hunter and family. There were 150 people attending. Songs were led by Arthur Nelson. School superintendent John Oster spoke on behalf of the many organizations, and Mrs. Edward Selvert for the Womens Society of Christian Service. The Rev. and Mrs. Hunter responded with appropriate remarks.

Refreshments were served by the Womens Society following the social hour. Mrs. John Francis was chairman of the committee. Local Achievement day for the 4H clubs was held at the Haven school July 24, when the girls of the Orioles club, the Willing Workers, Busy Hour, and Bluebirds modeled clothes for the Home Bureau. Demonstrations were given by Susan Webb, on salads; Carole Hammond on kabobs; and Kitty Hahn and Joan Kestel, a musical skit.

Food, flower arrangements, handicraft, table covers and outdoor meals, projects were judged. Refreshments were served with the Home Bureau members furnishing the punch and the 4H girls, the cookies. On July 26, the Bluebirds and other New Lenox clubs modeled clothes at the Haven school, for the assistant home advisor. The girls will attend the county fair at the Peotone of the Busy Hour 4H club until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and daughters spent the past weekend in Beardstown, Ill. with his father, G. A. Taylor.

of N. Cedar road, have returned after visiting for 10 days with relatives in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Maryland and West Virginia.

Achievement Day

Fourteen members attended the Home Bureau meeting July 24 at the Haven school, in conjunction with the 4H clubs Achievement day.

Members of the various New Lenox 4H clubs demonstrated their clothing and food projects; Judy Termuende gave a lesson on "Save Your Sight", and Joan Kestel and Kitty Hahn entertained with a Mexican skit.

The next meeting of the Home Bureau will be a potluck dinner Aug. 15 at the home of Mrs. Edward Berens, southwest of New Lenox.

The Womens Guild of Grace Episcopal church will meet at 8 pm. Thursday, Aug. 14, at the church.

Episcopal Schedule

The Grace Episcopal church has scheduled August as vacation month and the 7:30 am. Holy Communion service will be discontinued for that period. The 11 o'clock service will be in charge of lay readers.

Kenneth Tauber will conduct the 11 o'clock service the first Sunday in August. The Bishops committee and the Ladies guild will meet as usual Thursday, Aug. 14 at 8 pm.

The 10 o'clock Thursday communion service will continue.

The Rev. Humphrey C. Dixon, vicar of the local church, will have charge of the services at the reformatory at Pontiac Sunday mornings at 9:30 a.m. in August.

Pfc. Robert Dickson is spending a 16 day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Mesh Hale, So. Pine st., New Lenox. He is stationed at Huachuca, Arizona.

Death Claims Charles Sonntag

Charles Sonntag, veteran Joliet undertaker, died in Silver Cross hospital early Friday morning, July 25, after an illness of three weeks. He was born in Homer township 88 years ago in the 143rd street area. He graduated from a school of Pharmacy in 1890 and operated a drug store in Plainfield from 1895 to 1918. He had become a licensed embalmer in 1915 and when he sold the drug store he became associated with Wunderlich and Harris, Joliet undertakers.

In 1929 he established his own business at 221 Herkimer street which will be carried on by his associates, Lester Wylie, Maurice Burgess and Edward Bush.

He was a member of the Moose, the Lions and the Odd Fellows. He also was a member of the Universalist church of Joliet.

Funeral services were Monday forenoon with the Rev. John Q. Parkhurst officiating. He is survived by several nieces and nephews, including Mrs. Edna Lauffer of Hom-

Two Parties File Slates for City Election; Another in the Making

By CHLOE WHITE
SYcamore 8-6620

The newly created city of Country Club Hills is humming with political talk these days and rumors in orbit around the community are traveling at a rate to break the sound barrier.

Two parties have filed nominating papers with Attorney George Brogan who is accepting them for County Judge Otto Kerner, and it is expected that a third party will have its petition on file by tomorrow, Aug. 1, which is the last day for filing. The election will be held Aug. 23.

Besides the party petitions, Attorney Brogan reports two independent candidates have filed for alderman, Rosalie (Rusty) Wilson and Cass Brady. Mrs. Wilson filed last week. Mr. Brady, who filed this week, resides at 17950 Michael.

Petitions also are in circulation for William Marquardson, 4720 182nd Place, as an independent candidate for mayor.

The two party petitions filed carry the names, Suburban Life and Achievement Party. To be elected are, a mayor, city clerk, treasurer, police magistrate and six aldermen.

More than 100 persons crowded into the Homeowners House when the Suburban Life party agreed upon its slate and questions were popped at the prospective candidates from all quarters. Each of the candidates spoke briefly, setting forth their intentions and beliefs.

The Suburban Life slate, which was unanimously endorsed by the nominating committee, is made up as follows:

For mayor, E. K. School District 160
The school buildings (temporary) in Unit 2 will cease to be quite the eyesore they once were, thanks to the generosity of the J. B. Merriam Company and the volunteer work of community residents.

The new sodding which was laid last Friday, Saturday and Sunday was the gift of the Merriam Company and members of the PTA, Civic Association, Homeowner's Association, School Board as well as most candidates seeking office gave generously of their time and efforts.

The job was finished off by a thoro soaking provided by

Christian Church

A Sunday school teachers meeting was held last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Ramser co-superintendents. A discussion of the present curriculum and plans for the future lessons were made.

Both Sunday school and church services are to be held in the open woods at the all-family church picnic to be held Aug. 17 in Tinley Creek woods.

There will be races and games for everyone as well as a family style picnic. Each family is to bring their own main dish as well as bread and butter. There is to be a pot luck table for salad and dessert and each family will also bring a dish to place on the table. Ice cream will be furnished.

Cub Scouts

The Cub Scout family picnic was a wild success and even the showers arrived at the end of the supper the spirits weren't dampened a bit.

Ray Bergman, chairman, assisted by his committee Ray Winters, Ed Raddatz, John Nicholson and Owen Tibbles planned a program that was fun for the parents as well as the boys.

There was a watermelon eating contest, a three legged race and a balloon blowing contest for the kids and most of them went home with prizes.

The most popular adult games were the Sir Walter Raleigh race and the father-son leapfrog.

After the games and supper the picnic moved into Black Bear Lodge where a short business meeting was held followed by the awarding of badges. Greg Koehn was the recipient of both a gold and silver arrow, Ray Bergman Jr. received his gold arrow and Gary Van Horn was awarded his Bear badge.

Altogether 25 parents enjoyed this outing with their families and all pronounced it a wonderful success.

Teen Club
The teen club had its long awaited splash party at the Blue Island pool last weekend.

There were 21 teenagers present and the chaperones Mr. and Mrs. Carl Timmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Berdan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Horn and Mr. Francis White.

Their ravenous appetites were satiated by the weiner roast that followed.

The next meeting of the Teen club will be Aug. 9th in the Homeowner's House at 8:30 p.m. Dancing will follow.

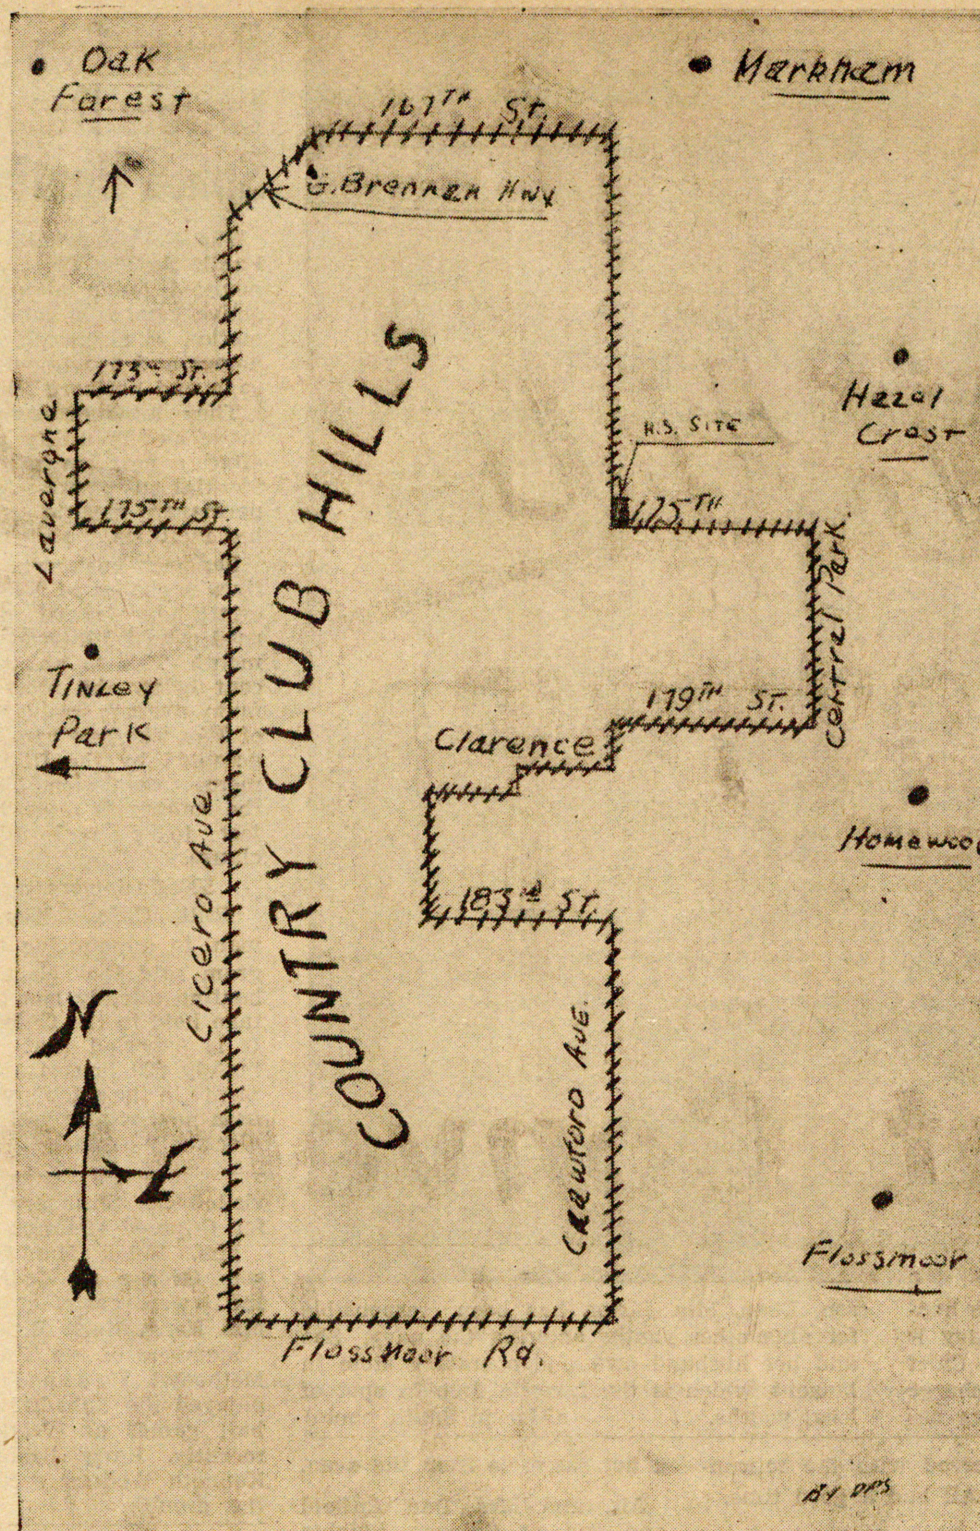

Civic Association

The regular monthly meeting of the Civic Association of Country Club Hills was held Monday evening, July 21.

After the business meeting Larry Simon, president of the Association, presented George Brogan, attorney and resident of Country Club Hills, who explained in detail the offices to be filled by the approaching election and also the duties of each office.

The next meeting of the Association will be held Tuesday Aug. 5 at 8 p.m. The theme for this meeting will also be of interest to every resident and voter in view of our recent incorporation, and pending election of officials.

Guest speaker will be Walter E. Wiles, village attorney of Flossmoor and president of South Cook County and Will County Association of Municipalities. Mr. Wiles will speak on the obstacles to be overcome in setting up a new municipality.

All residents of the community are invited to attend this meeting which will be held at the Homeowner's House, 17871 Anthony.

PTA

This Saturday, Aug. 2, is the night to kick up your heels at the PTA sponsored "Cotton Hop" to be held at Saenger Hall in Tinley Park.

If by some chance your representative hasn't called at your door with tickets, it will be possible to purchase them at the door. There will be refreshments and prizes.

Miscellany

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bergmann 4740 179th place, and their children Ray, Jr. and Leilahni, have just returned from an extended trip thru Colorado and points between. They were especially thrilled by the climb to the top of Pikes Peak (in the car of course) also the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. On their return they visited Boystown, Neb., which impressed them very much.

John Demakeas spent the day recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McArdle, 18045 Thomas Lane. Mr. Demakeas is employed by an oil company in Maricao, Venezuela.

Two Vacation Bible Schools Will Close Sessions This Week

This week marks the end of two vacation bible schools at Tinley Park. The one operated by Zion Lutheran church will close tomorrow noon (Aug. 1) with a picnic lunch for children and parents on the church lawn. The other school, sponsored by the Church of Christ, is holding its closing program tonight at 8 o'clock in the church. Handicraft completed by the pupils will be on exhibit.

The Church of Christ school had an enrollment of 60, according to those in charge.

There were 133 children enrolled in the Zion Lutheran school this year. On this Sunday, Aug. 3, the children of the Bible school will attend the 10:30 worship service and sing several songs they learned at school.

The Sunday service will be geared specifically for the children but everyone is invited.

Power Company Lowers Rate for Space Heating

The Commonwealth Edison Public Service Co. system announced today plans for an active campaign for the promotion of electrically heated homes and apartments in Chicago and northern Illinois.

The announcement was made as the utility put into effect a new low rate for residential customers who install permanent electric space heating facilities.

For such customers the rate fixes a charge of 1 3/4c a kilowatt hour for all electricity used over 500 kilowatt hours a month. This is about 30 per cent below the present minimum average residential rate of 2 1/2c. The new rate has been accepted by the Illinois commerce commission. Like all of the company's rates, it is subject to a fuel adjustment clause.

500 Customers to Date

Willis Gale, Edison chairman, in announcing the program said that electric home heating already has begun to take hold in the Chicago area. It is expected that approximately 500 houses and apartments in the company's service area next winter will be using electricity exclusively for heat-visited the Shringer's hospital for Crippled Children Sunday.

Mrs. Helen Hardwick and son George of Cedar Lake, Ind., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nolte Saturday.

Members of the Tinley Park Methodist Youth Fellowship enjoyed the Cubs-Braves baseball games at Wrigley Field recently. Harry Schmidt and Kenneth Webster accompanied the group.

ing. Many more are in the planning stage.

"The use of electricity for space heating is no new idea, for this advanced method of providing home comfort long has been accepted in milder climates," said Mr. Gale.

"With continuing improvements in electric heating equipment, it is now beginning to prove successful in well insulated homes in areas comparable to our own service territory.

"We believe that electric heating is now ready to take its place in the long procession of better services which have marked the progress of our business, including better lighting, better refrigeration and cooling and better way to launder the clothes and clean the home. In each case, the electric way has proved to be the better way."

Reviews Forms Electric heating equipment is available in various forms. One method, direct resistance or radiant heating, provides heat without ducts or piping. These may take the form of wall units, baseboard installation or ceiling cables.

Another method, the heat pump, will automatically heat the home in winter and cool it in summer. It will also filter and dehumidify the air.

Sometimes, combinations of the heat pump and radiant units are installed.

In addition to being clean—there is no flame or flue—electric heat also permits the selection of whatever temperature is wanted in each room.

"First-Footing", a Scottish custom, means that the first person to visit you on New Year's day must bring a bottle and give you a drink for good luck.
